

Boston, March 19. 1853.

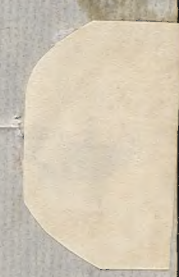

Dear Mr. Webb,

Enclosed I send you Bill of Lading of One Box, directed Richard D. Webb, 176 Ch. Brunswick St., Dublin, Ireland, the freight of which I have paid to Liverpool, — It goes by Train & Co's Ship "Parliament". I shall be pleased to hear that it reaches you safely and in good order. — Mr. Wallcut wishes me to say that he has received no account from you this year; — he thought it possible you might have sent one (as you usually do before this time), & that it had miscarried. —

[I am sorry to say the "Advocate" comes very irregularly. I had 12 copies, No. 5; of No. 6, I have had none — Mr. Wallcut none — & none have come to the other subscribers, whose papers have commonly passed through our Postoffice box. Mr. L. G. has received 4 copies,] — Mr. L. G. has a note from J. Miller McKim, saying he proposes to go to England this season. Yours very truly, Saml. May Jr
